

If you are looking for an inexpensive place to stay, Couchsurfing might be interesting for you. It is an opportunity to meet nice people, who rent out their couch or bed for little or even no money.

Check these websites:

<http://www.roomsurfer.com>

<http://www.couchsurfing.org>

If you need a bit more privacy, there are a lot of private furniture flats to rent on <http://www.airbnb.com>

Or if you want a real hotel, a good websites to look are:

<https://www.hrs.com>

and

<http://www.hotelreservierung.de>

We always use Google Earth, in order to make sure that the place or hotel you book is not too far from the venue.

If you look for the hotel on Google Earth, you will also find which subway or train stations are easy to reach.

Here you can download Google Earth for free:

<http://www.google.de/intl/en/earth/download/ge/agree.html>

Good luck with the searching and finding!

The Light Grids Team